Human Rights

A human right is something that all humans should be able to have. For example, the right to food, water and safe shelter.

What is a human right?

" I have the right to good mental health. "

Draw a logo to show this right: